

Job Search Sources and Application Preparation Process Guide

We care for you much enough to prepare a list of job search links just to give you a head start and assist you with your job search. If clicking on the link that doesn't take you to the site, try to copy and paste the link to a new tab/window. There are many other sources out there so please go ahead and explore beyond this list.

On the last page, we have prepared a page where you will build your application list saving the jobs that you will be applying to once you receive your resume and cover letter. Fill out your job list with at least 25 jobs between now and the time we deliver. We discovered that over 70% of our clients who do that end up getting jobs faster than those who do not compile the list beforehand.

Fun fact: Our clients who get mind blowing results within no time submit about 25 job applications. To achieve this in just one month, apply to 8 jobs a week per guideline below
