

How to Get Enrolled in School

Here are the 3 steps to get your foreign degree accredited. This process will help you to further your education in the US.

WES & TOEFL Preparation

1. You would need to have your transcripts evaluated by any qualified accreditation body.
2. You will need to pursue and pass TOEFL exam (Test for English)
3. Start applying to different schools

We tried to see if there would be any exception, but they are not able to make any adjustments per the legal requirements. The process is simple and straight forward if you have everything done right. Follow the instructions we have provided you below.

Accreditation:

Of all accreditation bodies, we propose that you go by World Education Service (WES) where we have recommended a good number of people like you. They are very efficient and reliable. They would be able to finish your process within a week or 2 after receiving transcripts from your University.

To get started with the WES, we have provided you with the link below. Open and account and follow instructions therein. It is good if you read from the website how it works, how the process goes and all that just you can be aware of what it is all about. Watch the video we have provided below as well.

TOEFL:

This exam goes for 3 hours 10 minutes but usually people complete in an hour for those of us who are from English speaking countries. For non-English speaking countries, we advise that you learn more on TOEFL exams on YouTube, and if possible take tests to have a feel of how it goes.

It is very easy and simple. The tests are done up to about 40 times a year.

If they want you to take more credits before you get an admission, that is fine too. You can do it from the nearest accredited college or university near you. Find one that will cost you the least.

Let us know of your progress so we will advise you accordingly.
